Men's National team manager 2017/2018 – Job description

The New Zealand Men's Floorball National team played in the World Floorball Championships Qualification in 2014 and 2016 and is currently ranked 26th in the World. Floorball New Zealand has entered the team again into the WFCQ 2018. The Qualification Tournament is likely to be held in Korea in January 2018 and the team will compete against other countries from the Asia-Oceania region for a spot in the World Floorball Championship Finals, which are held in the Czech Republic in December 2018.

Floorball New Zealand is committed to further improve and strengthen the Floorball performance of the New Zealand National teams. Therefore, Floorball New Zealand is looking for a National Team manager for the Men's National team for the campaign of the 2018 World Floorball Championships. The manager will work closely with the head coach who will lead, train and coach the team from April this year until the Qualification Tournament in 2018 and in case of Qualification, also to the World Cup Finals in December 2018. The team manager will support the head coach with administration, organisation and team management.

The successful applicant will have:

- A real passion for Floorball and the development of individual players as well as a positive team culture and spirit
- A strong dedication to work with young and developing players and help them become a strong part of future National teams
- Very good organization and communication skills to work effectively with the head coach and to liaise with players, parents, IFF, other countries and local organizers.
- A positive and supportive attitude to inspire and encourage all players

Due to the fact that a large part of the players for the New Zealand National team is based in the lower North Island, the main training location will likely be in Wellington. Trainings will be in the form of weekend training camps and individual training days spread over several months.
